

Golden Beach

Qingdao Golden Beach Scenic Area stands out as a renowned coastal tourist and resort destination in China, proudly holding the title of "Asia's Best Beach" thanks to its exquisite golden sands and breathtaking natural landscapes.

Situated in the Huangdao District of Qingdao, this crescent-shaped beach spans an impressive 3500 meters from east to west, with a width of 300 meters, hugging the southern edge of the Yellow Sea. The sand on this beach is not only exceptionally fine but also sports a distinctive golden hue, hence the aptly given name Golden Beach. The clear seawater and flat tidal flats make Golden Beach an ideal spot for swimming and leisurely activities. Moreover, the scenery at Golden Beach undergoes delightful transformations throughout the seasons, resembling an ever-changing scroll painting that invites visitors to immerse themselves in the charm of nature and the vibrancy of life.

Additionally, don't miss the opportunity to explore Beer City within the Golden Beach Scenic Area. Qingdao Beer City stands as the largest international beer metropolis in Asia, hosting the annual Qingdao International Beer Festival. Nestled in the prime location of the Golden Beach National Tourist Resort, this high-end amusement park is themed around large-scale recreation and beer culture. Each year, over two million visitors converge at Qingdao Beer City, with the Beer Festival being a highlight. It becomes a focal point where people from around the world come together, raising their glasses to savor the internationalized leisure and entertainment on offer.

Photo from 青岛西海岸报